Subject: Central Corridor Project---Duke Presentation ---Crowne Plaza Blue Ash 1/26/2017

Matt,

I stayed through the whole formal presentation. To say it went well for Duke would be presenting an "alternative fact." We were thrown out of the room because there were too many questions being asked! There were some irate folks!

Do you think last night's meeting met the OPSB requirement? Seems to me that the meeting was very poorly arranged. The presentation room was way too small and people were turned away; the parking lot was filled, or over-filled! If the goal is to educate the public, it doesn't seem to me that it met that goal.

So is there going to be an opportunity to present something to the public in a fair fashion where all who are interested have a chance to hear?

Thanks,

Glenn
