PUCO Administrators,

I am writing regarding the duplicate certification by PUCO and GATS which occurred for the system located at 7442 Kingstonview Court; Cincinnati, OH 45255. We ask that you revoke the certificate 16-SPV-OH-GATS-0407 considering the following actions which have been taken so far.

For background information, because we believed this system had not yet been registered, Sol Systems applied on behalf of this system which was eventually certified with GATS ID NON131533 and PUCO certification number 16-SPV-OH-GATS-0407.

However, it turned out this system had already been registered by the owner with GATS ID NON74720 and PUCO certification number 12-SPV-OH-GATS-1344. This GATS account was transferred to Sol Systems aggregation on July 28th from "Thompson Residence".

This resulted in the same system being certified twice. The original registration submitted by the owner should remain intact. The registration submitted by Sol Systems which resulted in GATS ID NON131533 and PUCO certification number 16-SPV-OH-GATS-0407 should be deactivated/decertified. To date the following actions have occurred:

1. There were two SRECs that were minted to NON131533 that were also sold. (2116268 from May 2016 and 2174099 from June 2016). Because these SRECS should have never minted, Sol Systems transferred the following two replacement SRECS to PJM-EIS Holding Account on 4/13/2017.

2190074 - May 2016
2195182 - June 2016

2. GATS administrators deactivated NON131533 on 5/10/2017.

PUCO now needs to decertify 16-SPV-OH-GATS-0407 as a final step in resolution.

Best,

Bridget Callahan
