COMMENT DESCRIPTION:

DP&L (Duke Energy) has requested another rate increase. I oppose any rate increase for electricity. There are 33 states that have electric rates lower than those found in Ohio. with the present profit margins exhibited by DP&L (Duke Energy) there is no reason to increase electric rates. Ohio is the 10th most taxed state, there is no reason to add insult to injury. Allowing Duke to purchase DP&L was supposed to LOWER our Electric rates NOT increase them ! No rate increase!
