Experience and Plans

Energy Auction House is a Natural Gas and Electricity Brokerage House based in Sandwich Massachusetts. Our management team has over 25 yrs. combined experience in de-regulated retail energy and our sales force is comprised of seasoned sales professionals. Our mission is to build trusted and long lasting relationships and become the customers' full service energy consultant. Besides traditional brokerage services, EAH provides a web-based Reverse Auction Platform where multiple Energy Suppliers bid against each other in real time, guaranteeing the lowest possible price for our customers business. If at the conclusion of a scheduled Auction, the customer is not satisfied with the lowest bid, there is no obligation to the customer and they schedule another auction or just walk away.

Plans in Ohio: In the last several months we have interviewed several candidates in Ohio to manage a sales team and establish a physical office. Ohio is the only state where EAH operates where we do not have authority to broker Natural Gas due to the requirement of a physical presence. EAH only has one Electricity account in Ohio as of this submission. Our growth is steady and gradual and hope we are successful in finding the right Energy Professional to build a team in Ohio. There are no plans to change our business model at this time. New operational support employees are added as needed.

In response to compliance with Section 4928.10 of the Revised Code: EAH has an Attorney on staff to answer all sales staff or customer questions at all time. I, Michael Giery, am in the office every day and devote 100% of my time to EAH and all its operational functions with no other legal obligations to any other firm or personal practice.

EAH works with both the supplier and customer to be sure that the customer is receiving a bill that he or she understands. EAH has a toll-free customer service line staffed with experienced representatives to respond to inquiries. I personally will answer that line when available. I personally monitor the Info@energyah.com and legal@energyah.com email inbox and respond to each and every email on a daily basis.

Key Employee profiles attached hereafter.
