Highlands serves notice by winning Scott Invite

James Weber
Cincinnati Enquirer
USA TODAY NETWORK

Swimming titles at Covington Catholic and Notre Dame are about as common as hats and gloves this time of year.

The Colonels and Pandas have concurrent 19-year winning streaks in the KHSAA regional team championships. The 1998 regional meet was the last time either program didn't finish in first place in the team standings. Scott won the boys and Beechwood the girls that year.

Both private-school powers will have to work to keep those streaks alive if Saturday's Scott Classic had any indication. The Scott Classic had all the Northern Kentucky programs participating.

And one new champion, after Highlands unseated CovCath to win the boys title, winning by 61 points (316-255). Head coach Amanda Johnson believes it's the first time Highlands has won the meet since 1995.

"We're looking at regionals so we're looking at our lineups for different events," Johnson said. "Regionals are the ultimate goal, and then state. This was exciting for sure."

Like regionals, teams were allowed to enter four individuals per event. Highlands' top individual was senior Garrison Herfel, who won two individual events and helped in both relay titles, as the Bluebirds won both free-style quartet. He was the outstanding boys swimmer of the meet based on points.
