Cover letter to PUCO – Change in Ownership

In accordance to P.U.C.O. regulations we would like to announce to our customers that on January 17, 2018, the company began transferring the ownership of Valtech Communications, LLC.

The sole member of Valtech Communications has decided after over 15 years in business and due to health reasons, it was time to retire and transfer ownership to Adam Gerardi who has overseen the entire operation of Valtech Communications for the past 10 years as president of the company. Together he and Eric Hullibarger have created Valtech Enterprises LLC, dba Valtech Communications. With Adams direct knowledge of the company, expertise in telecommunications and Eric's extensive knowledge and skill in the IT field, along with talented resources are expected to create synergy in Valtech's vision.

During the transition, there was no interruption of services or operations. Valtech Enterprises Customers' are being notified via bill inserts (copy attached). There are no changes in billing, rates or customer service. Valtech will continue to provide consumers with good quality telecommunication products and will continue to provide upgraded total business solutions and excellent customer service.
