

LARGE FILING SEPARATOR SHEET

CASE NUMBER: 17-1948-TP-LNC

FILE DATE: 08/30/18

SECTION: PART 2 OF 7

FILED BY: T. DIXON

FILED ON BEHALF OF: PROGRESS OHIO

NUMBER OF PAGES: 150

DESCRIPTION OF DOCUMENT: PUBLIC COMMENTS

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Ron, Summit

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

Clayton Fant

"

Clayton, Summit

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Steve, Summit

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Jeannette, Summit

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Trisha, Summit

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Susan, Summit

“After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

”

Rebecca, Summit

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Kathleen, Summit

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Howard, Summit

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Jim, Summit

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Jeff, Summit

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Terrance, Summit

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Patricia, Summit

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Diane, Summit

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Paul, Summit

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Wendy, Summit

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Karl, Summit

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Shane, Summit

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Joseph, Summit

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Rosamond, Summit

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Joyce, Summit

“After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

”

Judy, Summit

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Karl, Summit

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Tony, Summit

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Thelma, Trumbull

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

John, Trumbull

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Kristin, Trumbull

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Victor, Trumbull

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Tammy, Trumbull

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Thelma, Trumbull

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Rebecca, Trumbull

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

John, Trumbull

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Marsh, Tuscarawas

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

O

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Patricia, Tuscarawas

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Robert, Tuscarawas

"This is horrible. Please don't leave folks left in a lurch.

After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Cheryl, Union

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Stephanie, Van Wert

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Michael, Warren

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Cheree', Warren

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Stephen, Warren

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Joel, Warren

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Michael, Warren

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Sandra, Warren

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

”

Rose, Warren

“After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

”

Richard, Warren

“After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

”

Linda, Warren

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

STOP IT!! People deserve to be treated as humans. Not another source of revenue.

Sincerely,

Gary D. Canterbury

9320 Vaughn Lane

Franklin, Ohio 45005

A concerned Ohioan

”

Gary, Warren

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Neil, Warren

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Marilyn, Warren

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Peter, Warren

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Tony, Warren

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Kenneth, Warren

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

John, Warren

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Brian, Warren

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Jerri, Washington

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Mary, Washington

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Carol, Washington

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

Elena Sokol

A concerned Ohioan

"

Elena, Wayne

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Gary, Wayne

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Karla, Wayne

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Gail, Wayne

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Joy, Wayne

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Pamela, Montgomery

"After making $2.1 billion from the GOP/KKK/Fascist Party's December, 2017 corporate tax scam, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Patty, Montgomery

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Joyce, Montgomery

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Janet, Montgomery

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Megan, Montgomery

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Ellen, Montgomery

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Monte, Montgomery

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Valerie, Montgomery

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Gladys, Montgomery

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Tom, Montgomery

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Vanessa, Montgomery

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Mike, Montgomery

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

This is shameful behavior, AT&T.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Cheryl, Montgomery

“After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

”

William, Montgomery

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

William, Montgomery

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Kathleen, Montgomery

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Joseph, Montgomery

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Cate, Montgomery

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program. I say NO FREAKING WAY. This is what always happens, giant corporations twist the law to get even more and more is never enough from them. I pay a little extra on my AT&T phone bill every month so that an elderly widow can keep a phone. If AT&T wants to keep my $100+ each month then they can by god keep little old ladies on affordable phone lines.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Hillary, Montgomery

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Shannon, Montgomery

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Jan, Montgomery

“After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

”

Norman, Montgomery

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Gary, Montgomery

“After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

”

Stephanie, Montgomery

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Amy, Montgomery

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Marjorie, Morgan

“After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

”

Reed, Muskingum

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Derek, Muskingum

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Jarrett, NJ

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Rose, NY

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Jennifer, NY

“After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

”

Amy, NY

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Cindy, NY

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Michael, NY

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Cynthia, OH

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Jean, OH

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

John, OH

“After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

Please do not let them do this!

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

”

Elizabeth, OH

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Calis, OH

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Ramona, OH

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Allen, OH

“After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

”

Ben, OH

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

James, OH

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Mack, OH

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Matthew, OH

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Miriam, OH

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Hazel, OH

“After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

”

Angelica, OH

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Cheryl, OH

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Susan, OH

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Kathryn, OH

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Christene, OH

“After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

”

Mia, OH

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Mark, OH

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Starlette, OH

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Linda, OH

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Evelyn, OH

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Jeff, OH

"AT&T should not be allowed to end the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

Katherine Gharrity

"

Katherine, OH

“After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

”

Robert, OH

“After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

”

Frederick, OH

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Ann, OH

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Laura, OH

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Margaret, OH

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Grace, OH

“After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

”

Mike, OH

“After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio’s withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T’s request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio’s attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

”

Steven, OH

"Please do not withdraw from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect people in need. Please do what's best for all of Ohio, which means supporting those with low or fixed incomes, especially the elderly, many of whom do not have the option of adding more income to their households at this point. Taking away the ability to communicate will affect their health and well being, from scheduling appointments to calling for help. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

An Ohioan thinking about the elderly in need

"

Heather, OH

“After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

”

Harry, OH

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Gary, OH

“After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio’s withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T’s request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio’s attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

”

Anna, OH

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Mark, OH

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Ruth, OH

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Les, OH

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Amanda, OH

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Marcy, OH

“After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

”

Larry, OH

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Martin, OH

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Dana, OH

“Is there no end to the greed! After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

”

Mary, OH

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Erin, OH

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Mark, AZ

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Michael, AZ

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Mary, Wood

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Jennifer, Wood

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Peter, Wyandot

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Bab, 0