

LARGE FILING SEPARATOR SHEET

CASE NUMBER: 17-1948-TP-LNC

FILE DATE: 08/30/18

SECTION: PART 5 OF 7

FILED BY: T. DILTON

FILED ON BEHALF OF: PROGRESS OHIO

NUMBER OF PAGES: 150

DESCRIPTION OF DOCUMENT: PUBLIC COMMENTS

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

David, Hancock

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Linda, Henry

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Susan, Highland

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Lee, Huron

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

William, Huron

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Phyllis, Huron

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Dennis, IL

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Barbara, IL

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Hope, IL

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Jana, IN

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Anthony, IN

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Barbara, Jefferson

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Jeffrey, Jefferson

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Lynne, Jefferson

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Barbara, Jefferson

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Roger, KY

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Carlynn, Lake

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Carl, Lake

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

It's unconscionable for companies to abandon the most vulnerable. It is EXTREMELY IMPORTANT THAT THERE IS A LIFELINE to the outside world Re Family and/or emergencies. Do not let ATT or any other communications company shirk their responsibility.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Sandra, Lake

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Tom, Lake

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Sue, Lake

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Jeanne, Lake

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program. This demonstration of corporate greed is nauseating. I cancelled my AT&T cable and internet services...again because of corporate greed. I switched to Spectrum after AT&T refused to match their offer. Within a week of canceling the offers from AT&T began rolling on. This kind of game playing makes me sick.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing. It's unconscionable.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

An extremely concerned Ohio voter

"

Leslie, Lake

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Carlynn, Lake

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Joseph, Lawrence

“After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

”

Michelle, Lawrence

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Troy, Lawrence

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Meredith, Licking

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Rob, Lorain

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Richard, Lorain

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Eleanor, Lorain

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

David, Lorain

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Sue, Lorain

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Melissa, Lorain

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Katherine, Lorain

“After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

”

Colleen, Lorain

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Jeff, Lorain

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Mary, Lorain

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Monika, Lorain

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Dwight, Lorain

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Sue, Lorain

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Sara, Lorain

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Joan, Lorain

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Burwasser, Lorain

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Timothy, Lucas

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Leo, Lucas

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Kristin, Lucas

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Essie, Lucas

"The lifeline program is a needed program for the needy. This program SAVES LIVES; DO NOT let anyone die. The onus is yours, do the right thing!

Jim Malone"

James, Lucas

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Dean, Lucas

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Douglas, Lucas

"I was born and grew up in Hudson, OH; my family and best friends still live there in Ohio, where I visit several times a year, and I involve myself in all Ohio elections (and voting rights suppression issues). Some of my oldest friends are first-hand witnesses to being poor, elderly, invalids and/or vets in Ohio. And after making $2.1 billion from December's corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program!

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and veterans. It's utterly despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially when their profits are skyrocketing!

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can take billions from taxpayers while abandoning customers. PUCO must block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program. Or it should make the effort to look Ohioans straight in the eye, including veterans suffering from Agent Orange disorders, PTSD or missing limbs, single people, widows and widowers in frail health, mothers of small children, and explain that AT&T's profits are more important than they are. Right now I see cowards at the helm of that famously greedy corporation, and suffering friends and kin under their heel.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Mary, MA

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Phillip, Mahoning

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Robert, Mahoning

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Elizabeth, Mahoning

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Ron, Mahoning

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Dawn, Mahoning

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Manuel, Mahoning

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Gary, Mahoning

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Tommie, Mahoning

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Harold, Mahoning

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Lola, Mahoning

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Angelic, Mahoning

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Laura, Mahoning

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Dale, Mahoning

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

William, Mahoning

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Wayne, Mahoning

“After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

”

Anthony, Mahoning

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Cara, Mahoning

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Jerry, Medina

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

John, Medina

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Jeff, Medina

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Brad, Medina

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Thomas, Medina

“After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

”

Pat, Medina

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Victoria, Medina

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Dan, Mercer

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

William, MI

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Linda, MI

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Sarah, MI

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Jeff, Miami

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Dave, Miami

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

John, MO

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Robert, MO

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Marsha, Montgomery

“After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

”

Cena, Montgomery

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Lisa, Montgomery

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Sue, Montgomery

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Carol, Montgomery

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Roberta, Montgomery

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Debra, Montgomery

“After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

”

Tim, Montgomery

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Cheryl, Montgomery

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Peggy, Montgomery

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Elizabeth, Montgomery

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Paul, Montgomery

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Donnie, Montgomery

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Mary, Montgomery

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to withdraw from the federal Lifeline program that allows many Ohioans access to vital telephone and internet services.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is disheartening that AT&T would disregard Ohioans in need, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

John, Montgomery

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Summer, Montgomery

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

”

Mark, Montgomery

“After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

”

Robert, Montgomery

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Mark, Montgomery

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Logan, Montgomery

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Jeanette, Montgomery

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program. This is completely unacceptable behavior, and it should not be allowed.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

David, Montgomery

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Richard, Montgomery

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Michael, Montgomery

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Teresa, Montgomery

“After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

”

Michael, Montgomery

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Stephen, Montgomery

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Jerome, Montgomery

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Teresa, Montgomery

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Bill, Montgomery

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Jeanne, Montgomery

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Danny, Montgomery

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Ann-Marie, Montgomery

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Dave, Cuyahoga

“After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

”

American, Cuyahoga

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Francine, Cuyahoga

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Sophia, Cuyahoga

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would negatively affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. The merit of this program has not diminished over time. I recommend it to people in need whenever the issue comes up. .

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should do its public duty and block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Myron, Cuyahoga

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Theodore, Cuyahoga

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Carpenter, Cuyahoga

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Cheryl, Cuyahoga

"This is a no-brainer !

After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Don, Cuyahoga

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Patricia, Cuyahoga

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Holly, Cuyahoga

“After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

”

Pavel, Cuyahoga

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Barbara, Cuyahoga

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Deanna, Cuyahoga

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Elizabeth, Cuyahoga

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Quinton, Cuyahoga

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Carie, Cuyahoga

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

David, Cuyahoga

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Loretta, Cuyahoga

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Lynne, Cuyahoga

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Patricia, Cuyahoga

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Marge, Cuyahoga

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Linda, Cuyahoga

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Margaret, Delaware

“After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

”

Timothy, Erie

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Deborah, Erie

“After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

”

J, Erie

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Shawnasy, Erie

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Lynn, Erie

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Vicki, Erie

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

Gay, Fairfield

"After making $2.1 billion from the December corporate tax cut, AT&T wants to abandon Ohioans by withdrawing from the Lifeline program.

AT&T Ohio's withdrawal would affect over 10,000 customers, including those in low-income households, the elderly, and our veterans. It is despicable that AT&T would throw Ohioans in need under the bus, especially at a time when their profits are skyrocketing.

Approving AT&T's request would signal that companies can rake in billions of dollars from taxpayers while abandoning its own customers. PUCO should block AT&T Ohio's attempt to leave the Lifeline program.

Sincerely,

A concerned Ohioan

"

James, FL