MEMORANDUM IN SUPPORT

I. Background

The Complainant filed a Complaint against Ohio Edison on June 18, 2019, alleging unjust billing practices. On July 8, 2019, Ohio Edison filed its Answer, in which Ohio Edison denied the allegations in the Complaint. On August 21, 2019, the Commission issued an Entry scheduling a Settlement Conference for September 26, 2019. Counsel for Ohio Edison has a scheduling conflict on September 26, 2019.

II. Law and Argument

Ohio Edison respectfully requests that the Hearing be continued and rescheduled for a date that is mutually agreeable to the Commission, Ohio Edison and the Complainant. This Commission has held that scheduling conflicts are good cause shown justifying the continuance of a hearing.<sup>1</sup>

III. Conclusion

For the foregoing reasons, Ohio Edison Company respectfully requests that the Commission continue the Hearing in this matter and reschedule the Hearing for a date that is mutually agreeable to the Commission, Ohio Edison and the Complainants.

Respectfully submitted,
