MEMORANDUM IN SUPPORT

On June 6, 2018, the Ohio Power Company (AEP Ohio) filed its quarterly Power Purchase Agreement Rider (PPA Rider) updates in this newly docketed proceeding¹ in order to facilitate the annual audit proceeding of the PPA Rider envisioned by the Public Utilities Commission of Ohio (Commission).² On June 13, 2018, the Commission issued an entry seeking requests for proposals for an auditor to conduct a review of the prudence of costs recovered through the PPA.³ The auditor's redacted audit report was filed on August 8, 2019.⁴ As explained in more detail below, given that this proceeding may directly or indirectly impact the provision of electric service to Kroger's facilities in AEP Ohio's service territory, Kroger has a real and substantial interest in the outcome of these proceedings, and which cannot be adequately represented by any other party.

R.C. 4903.221 and Ohio Adm. Cod 4901-1-11 establish the standards for intervention in

² See In the Matter of the Application Seeking Approval of Ohio Power Company's Proposal to Enter into an Affiliate Power Purchase Agreement for Inclusion in the Power Purchase Agreement Rider, Case Nos. 14-1693-EL-RDR, et al., Opinion and Order at 90 (March 31, 2016) (PPA Rider Cases).

PUCO proceedings. R.C. 4903.221 provides, in pertinent part, that any person “who may be adversely affected” by a PUCO proceeding is entitled to seek intervention in that proceeding. R.C. 4903.221(B) further requires the PUCO to consider the nature and extent of the prospective intervenor’s interest, the legal position advanced by the prospective intervenor and its probable relation to the merits of the case, whether the intervention by the prospective intervenor will unduly prolong or delay the proceeding, and the prospective intervenor’s potential contribution to a just and expeditious resolution of the issues involved. Ohio Adm. Code 4901-1-11 permits intervention to a party who demonstrates a real and substantial interest in the proceeding and who is so situated that the disposition of the proceeding may impair or impede its ability to protect the interest and whose interest is not adequately represented by an existing party.

Kroger is one of the largest grocers in the United States, with numerous facilities served by AEP Ohio. Kroger’s electric and energy needs associated with its facilities in AEP Ohio’s service territory are considerable, and its electric service and the costs associated with obtaining such service from AEP Ohio will be impacted by the outcome in this proceeding. Indeed, Kroger has been a participant in other cases before the Commission involving rates charged by AEP Ohio and costs recovered from customers, including AEP Ohio’s electric security plan cases and even participated in the case in which the Commission ordered that an audit of the PPA Rider be performed.⁵

⁵ See In the Matter of the Application of Ohio Power Company for Authority to Establish a Standard Service Offer Pursuant to R.C. 4928.143, in the Form of an Electric Security Plan, Case Nos. 16-1852-EL-SSO, et al., Opinion and Order (April 25, 2018) and In the Matter of the Application Seeking Approval of Ohio Power Company’s Proposal to Enter into an Affiliate Power Purchase Agreement for Inclusion in the Power Purchase Agreement Rider, et al., Case Nos. 14-1693-EL-RDR, et al. Opinion and Order (March 31, 2016). Also see In the Matter of the Application of Columbus Southern Power Company and Ohio Power Company, Individually and, if Their Proposed Merger is Approved, as a Merged Company (collectively, AEP Ohio) for an Increase in Electric Distribution Rates, et al., Case Nos. 11-351-ELAIR, et al., Entry (November 1, 2011).

For the foregoing reasons, Kroger has a direct, real, and substantial interest in the issues raised in this proceeding and is so situated that the disposition of the proceeding may, as a practical matter, impair or impede its ability to protect that interest. Kroger's interests will not be adequately represented by other parties to the proceeding. Finally, Kroger's intervention is timely and will not unduly delay or prolong the proceeding.

Kroger satisfies the criteria set forth in R.C. 4903.221 and Ohio Adm. Code 4901-1-11, and is, therefore, authorized to intervene with the full power and rights granted by the Commission to intervening parties. Kroger respectfully requests that the Commission grant its motion to intervene and designate Kroger as a full party of record in the above-captioned case.
