

THE PUBLIC UTILITIES COMMISSION OF OHIO

IN THE MATTER OF THE APPLICATION OF FIRSTENERGY SOLUTIONS CORP. FOR CERTIFICATION AS A COMPETITIVE
RETAIL ELECTRIC SERVICE PROVIDER.

CASE NO. 00-1742-EL-CRS

ENTRY

Entered in the Journal on October 21, 2019

{¶ 1} FirstEnergy Solutions Corp. (FES) was issued a renewal certificate, Certificate No. 00-11E(9), to provide retail generation and power marketing services within the state of Ohio, effective November 2, 2016. The certificate was set to expire on November 2, 2018.

{¶ 2} On March 31, 2018, FES filed a voluntary petition in the United States Bankruptcy Court (Bankruptcy Court) for relief pursuant to Chapter 11 of Title 11 of the United States Code. FES timely filed a notice of material change in this docket regarding the bankruptcy.

{¶ 3} Subsequently, on April 4, 2018, the Commission opened a proceeding to protect Ohio consumers from any adverse impacts resulting from the filing of the petition in Bankruptcy Court; in addition, the Commission directed FES to file a report regarding the filing by May 4, 2018. In the Matter of the Filing by FirstEnergy Solutions Corp. of a Petition for Reorganization under Chapter 11 of the United States Bankruptcy Code, Case No. 18-569-EL-UNC, Entry (Apr. 4, 2018) at ¶ 7. On May 4, 2018, FES timely filed the report as directed by the Commission.

{¶ 4} On October 1, 2018, FES filed an application for certification renewal.

{¶ 5} On October 22, 2018, FES filed a motion for a 120-day extension of its current certificate, Certificate No. 00-11E(9). FES noted that, although it is financially stable, it was in bankruptcy. FES claimed that delaying the Commission's consideration of its renewal application and extending the current certificate for an additional 120 days would provide the Commission with the opportunity to evaluate FES' financial performance while in bankruptcy and will provide clarity on a potential sale of FES retail book of business and any potential FES plan of reorganization.

{¶ 6} On October 26, 2018, the attorney examiner granted the motion for an extension but determined that a 180-day extension would be more appropriate under the circumstances. Accordingly, the attorney examiner extended the current certificate to May 1, 2019.

{¶ 7} On October 29, 2018, FES filed notice of withdrawal of its renewal application filed on October 1, 2018.

{¶ 8} Subsequently, on March 20, 2019, FES filed a second motion for extension of its certificate, seeking to extend the certificate for 180 days, through October 28, 2019. On March 22, 2019, the attorney examiner granted the additional 180-day extension of its certificate. Accordingly, the expiration date of its current certificate was extended to October 28, 2019.

{¶ 9} On September 12, 2019, FES filed a motion for an additional 180-day extension of its certificate. FES notes that there have been significant developments in its bankruptcy proceeding. FES represents that creditors and other shareholders have reached agreement on all material aspects of FES' plan of reorganization and that FES is expected to emerge from bankruptcy by the end of 2019.

{¶ 10} The attorney examiner finds that FES has demonstrated good cause for an extension of its certificate and that the motion should be granted. Accordingly, the expiration date of its current certificate will be extended to April 29, 2020.

{¶ 11} The attorney examiner notes that FES should continue to file notices of material change in accordance with Ohio Adm.Code 4901:1-24-11 as necessary for the extended term of its certificate. In addition, FES should file, within 15 days, updated exhibits C-3, C-4, and C-5 of its renewal application filed; consistent with Ohio Adm.Code 4901:1-24-08, these updated exhibits may be marked “confidential” and filed under seal. Finally, FES should file, within 30 days, an additional update to its report filed on May 4, 2018, in Case No. 18-569-EL-UNC. This update should include any new information not available at the time the report was filed as well as a detailed summary of its current plan for reorganization filed with the Bankruptcy Court.

{¶ 12} It is, therefore,

{¶ 13} ORDERED, That FES’ motion, filed on September 12, 2019, for extension of the expiration date of Certificate No. 00-11E(9), be granted. It is, further,

{¶ 14} ORDERED, That the expiration date for Certificate No. 00-11E(9) be extended from October 28, 2019, to April 29, 2020. It is, further,

{¶ 15} ORDERED, That a copy of this Entry be served upon all parties of record.
