I can not believe that you a agency that is supposed to protect citizens just completely sided with big business. I hope all the perks Duke has given you are worth it. Not even to take your own judges advice is almost unbelievable. I hope that you each pay for your decision. As you have condemned all of us who will now live with the fear and concern of a high pressure pipeline running right past our homes, schools, churches, and community centers. There are not words to express my frustration in the failure of PUCO.
