HEARING EXAMINER SEE: Scheduled for hearing today at this time are

Case Nos. 02-46-EL-CSS and 02-66-EL-CSS, In the Matter of the Complaint of Brian and Connie Tomlin versus Columbus Southern Power Company.

I am Greta See, the Attorney Examiner assigned by the Commission to hear this case.

Let the record reflect that during a conference call on July 16th the parties were advised that I would be granting Columbus Southern Power's motion to continue the hearing. At this point we have agreed to continue the hearing until the week of August 26th, 2002.

There will be further discussions between the parties if we're going to start on Monday, August 26th or Tuesday, August 27th.

As I also informed the parties during the conference call on July 16th, at this time I am denying CSP's motion to strike the 1 direct testimony and all references of John 2 Huwel. CSP can, however, raise the motion to 3 strike at a later time if they so desire.

4 I'd also like to note that the 5 parties on the conference call were Barth Royer 6 and Donald Moore on behalf of the Complainant 7 and Leeland Evans, Connie Greaney and Marvin 8 Resnick on behalf of Columbus Southern Power.

9 Given that CSP's motion to continue 10 the hearing is granted, we'll adjourn this 11 hearing until further notice.
