My immediate concerns still remains, all of the unregistered Movers in my competing area. The solution in my opinion is to increase the number of enforcers and to make personal visits to the offices of the said Movers. Look in the Phone Book, because everyone of them in my area are advertising in every Phone Book possible.

As for you telling an Illegal Mover to cease operations, that just does not work. They laugh it off and the very next day they are out and about moving people.

The following is a list of said Movers in my area. I have been trying to get something done with them for the past 7 years, and to date nothing has been accomplished, all though their ads in the Phone Book get bigger and fancier every year.

I am in a very small market, and as you can see five Illegal Movers in my area puts a serious crunch on my business. These Movers are all out on moves every day of the week. That is approximately 1300 moves a year that I could have had the opportunity to Quote or Preform. If there is anything I can do to help get these people Legal I am more than willing to help

Sincerely

Mark A. Bowsher
