MY COMPLAINT IS:

My business line(s) were slammed by AT&T and I received a bill for fees as high as $4.24 a minute. I called AT&T the same day the bill was received A 3-way call was initiated with my local phone company (Verizon North). Verizon North said AT&T slammed a second line (937-698-7216) which shows billed to 937-698-3666 since this is the primary line. AT&T denied, was rude and demanded the bill be paid immediately.

I was referred to The PUCO by Verizon North and filed a complaint with PUCO Customer Service Investigator, Leslie Almond. She prepared a letter dated 10-2-02 informing the results of her investigation. I never received that letter because she mailed it to the wrong address.

After getting threatening collection letters from AT&T, I placed calls again to PUCO to see what was happening. After 4 calls to PUCO, I finally learned of the letter mix-up and received the original 10-2-02 PUCO letter and a 12-27-02 letter. These letters advised me of AT&T response. AT&T agreed to make a $143.50 "courtesy" adjustment.

That adjustment is unacceptable and I will pay nothing to AT&T since they illegally slammed one of my lines. My long distance service is with One Star where my rate is 5.9 cents a minute.

AT&T claims the billing is the result of incorrect routing or someone using a dial-around-number. We have never used dial-around-numbers and AT&T obviously has no proof of that. My local provider denies any error on their part concerning call routing.

Prior to this problem, I had received multiple long distance solicitation calls from AT&T contractors. Each time, I requested they place my name and number on their "No Call" list. That request did no good and I became increasingly rude to solicitations that continue to call.

It is my allegation that one of these solicitors initiated the slamming transfer to AT&T and was able to pick one of my unprotected lines.

I request that AT&T rescind the bill completely and immediately cease all collection attempts. I further demand that they correct any damage they have caused to my credit or the credit of my company.

Enclosed for your consideration are the following:

- A) October 2, 2002 letter from PUCO
- B) December 27, 2002 letter from PUCO
- C) Copy of AT&T bill for 8-13-02 to 9-13-02
- D) Copy of October 7, 2002 bill from local provider (Verizon North)
- E) Copy of 8-13-02 to 9-13-02 bill from my authorized long distance provider (One Star)

Dear Mr. Dehus:

Thank you for contacting the Public Utilities Commission of Ohio (PUCO) regarding AT&T Communications.

I have been in contact concerning the charges billed by AT&T that you are disputing. AT&T has stated that your service was not switched to them, however they started billing calls on August 13, 2002. This is possible if there is an error with your local provider and calls are routed incorrectly or if someone was using an AT&T dial-around number (i.e. 10-10-387) to call long distance. AT&T has agreed to issue a credit totaling $143.50 to your account. You may want to verify with your local carrier that they are routing all of your calls to the correct long distance carrier.

Please contact me at 1-800-686-7826 so if you have further questions or concerns.

Sincerely,

Leslie Almond

Dear Mr. Dehus:

I have been back in touch with AT&T concerning your billing dispute. AT&T has responded with the same information as they did initially. The credit of $143.50 was applied to your account as a "courtesy adjustment" for the long distance charges, but the rest of the balance is valid.

I am enclosing the form you need to fill out in order to file the complaint formally with the PUCO, as well as my initial response to you.

Sincerely,

Leslie Almond
