Exhibit C

Cox is grandfathering its equal access provisions in the local tariff. The terms and conditions for the extremely small percentage of its local customers that elected to have a non-Cox LD provider will not be affected for the present, but will in the next 12 to 18 months be offered a number of promotional offers to entice them to move to Cox LD. However, the remaining vast majority of its local customers will enjoy Cox LD as they have in the past.

Exhibit D

Customer Notice:

Important Telephone Information: Effective January 31, 2018 Cox will no longer provide Cox Digital Telephone Customers access to third-party long-distance (“LD”) carriers. We are making this change due to the continual decline in subscription to standalone LD service. As a result, it is no longer economically feasible for us to provide access to third-party long-distance carriers to our customers.
