

Rob Dorans 'Get Vaxed and pass the #PROACT'

@RobDorans

Well, 3 days after the intentional blackouts started the FIRST communication I get from @AEPOhio is an email telling me even though they turned folks power off they won't be compensating any one. This is such BS.

I deleted some tweets from earlier today encouraging folks to file claims with @AEPOhio for losses associated with these blackouts. Unfortunately, @AEPOhio contacted me this afternoon, for the 1st time during their outages, to tell me they would not compensate residents.

I am beyond frustrated that after days of lack of information, @AEPOhio is now refusing to help out residents that are deeply affected by this intentional blackout. The @PUCOhio and @ColumbusCouncil needs to look into what happened this week and make sure it doesn't happen again.

Finally, ultimate reason I took these tweets down (as they were still being retweet out yo the community) was to make sure folks weren't misinformed moving forward.
