Re: Case No. 12-2400-EL-UNC, 12-2401-EL-AAM, 12-2402-EL-ATA

Dear Docketing Division:

It has come to the attention of Duke Energy Ohio that a sentence was mistakenly included in the Motion to Vacate, filed on October 9, 2012. At the end of the first paragraph of the motion, Duke Energy Ohio inadvertently included what appeared to be a request for an expedited ruling. The intention was not to so request. It is important to note that the title of the motion makes no reference to expedited treatment and that there is no explanation or justification of the sentence in the body of the memorandum in support, as required by O.A.C. 4901-1-12(A). Thus, the apparent, but unintended request does not comply with applicable rules.

The inclusion of this sentence was an administrative oversight and should be disregarded by the Public Utilities Commission of Ohio. Duke Energy Ohio is not seeking expedited treatment of its Motion to Vacate, filed on October 9, 2012.

Very truly yours,
