BEFORE

THE PUBLIC UTILITIES COMMISSION OF OHIO

In the Matter of the Application of) Stand Energy Corporation for)
Certification as a Retail Natural)	Case No. 02-2549-GA-CRS
Gas Supplier.)

ENTRY

The attorney examiner finds:

- (1) On November 6, 2006, Stand Energy Corporation (Stand) filed a motion for a protective order under Rule 4901-1-24(D), Ohio Administrative Code (O.A.C.), with regard to its summary of experience (Exhibit B-3), financial statements (Exhibit C-3), financial arrangements (Exhibit C-4), and credit report (Exhibit C-7), as part of the renewal of its certification as a retail natural gas supplier.
- (2) Section 4905.07, Revised Code, provides that all facts and information in the possession of the Commission shall be public, except as provided in Section 149.43, Revised Code, and as consistent with the purpose of Title 49 of the Revised Code. Section 149.43, Revised Code, specifies that the term "public records" excludes information which, under state or federal law, may not be released. The Ohio Supreme Court has clarified that the "state or federal law" exemption is intended to cover trade secrets. State ex rel. Besser v. Ohio State, 89 Ohio St.3d 396, 399 (2000).
- (3) Similarly, Rule 4901-1-24, O.A.C., allows an attorney examiner to issue an order to protect the confidentiality of information contained in a filed document, "to the extent that state or federal law prohibits release of the information, including where the information is deemed . . . to constitute a trade secret under Ohio law, and where non-disclosure of the information is not inconsistent with the purposes of Title 49 of the Revised Code."
- (4) Ohio law defines a trade secret as "information . . . that satisfies both of the following: (1) It derives independent economic

This is to certify that the images empearing one an accurate and complete reproduction of a case file document delivered in the regular course of pusiness.

Technician Date Processed 1-8-07 value, actual and potential, from not being generally known to, and not being readily ascertainable by proper means by, other persons who can obtain economic value from its disclosure or use. (2) It is the subject of efforts that are reasonable under the circumstances to maintain its secrecy." Section 1333.61(D), Revised Code. The Ohio Supreme Court has adopted the following six factors to be used in analyzing a claim that information is a trade secret under that section:

- (1) [t]he extent to which the information is known outside the business;
- (2) the extent to which it is known to those inside the business, i.e., by the employees;
- (3) the precautions taken by the holder of the trade secret to guard the secrecy of the information;
- (4) the savings effected and the value to the holder in having the information as against competitors;
- (5) the amount of effort or money expended in obtaining and developing the information; and
- (6) the amount of time and expense it would take for others to acquire and duplicate the information.

State ex rel. The Plain Dealer v. Ohio Dept. of Ins., 80 Ohio St.3d 513, 524-525 (1997).

- (5) The Ohio Supreme Court has found that an in camera inspection is necessary to determine whether materials are entitled to protection from disclosure. State ex rel. Allright Parking of Cleveland Inc. v. Cleveland, 63 Ohio St.3d 772 (1992).
- (6) Rule 4901-1-24(D)(1), O.A.C., also provides that, where confidential material can be reasonably redacted from a document without rendering the remaining document incomprehensible or of little meaning, redaction should be ordered rather than wholesale removal of the document from public scrutiny.

02-2549-GA-CRS -3-

(7) Thus, in order to determine whether to issue a protective order, it is necessary to review the material in question; to assess whether the information constitutes a trade secret under Ohio law; to decide whether non-disclosure of the materials will be consistent with the purpose of Title 49, Revised Code; and to evaluate whether the confidential material can reasonably be redacted.

(8) The attorney examiner has reviewed Exhibits B-3, C-3, C-4, and C-7 and the assertions set forth in the memorandum in support of Stand's motion. Applying the requirements that the information have independent economic value and be the subject of reasonable efforts to maintain its secrecy, as well as the six-factor test set forth by the Ohio Supreme Court, the attorney examiner finds that the information in Exhibits C-3 and C-7, and certain information contained in Exhibits B-3 and C-4, are trade secrets. The release of Exhibits C-3 and C-7, and certain information in Exhibits B-3 and C-4 is, therefore, prohibited under state law. The attorney examiner also finds that non-disclosure of the information is not inconsistent with the purposes of Title 49 of the Revised Code.

Finally, the attorney examiner concludes that Exhibits C-3 and C-7 cannot be reasonably redacted to remove the confidential information contained therein. However, Exhibit B-3 primarily consists of a list of the states in which Stand is authorized to do business and can be reasonably redacted to remove the number of customers. Similarly, Exhibit C-4 consists of a basic loan document that can be reasonably redacted by removing the names and addresses of entities, the names and persons executing the agreement, and specific dollar amounts.

Therefore, the attorney examiner finds that there is good cause to grant Stand's motion for a protective order for Exhibits C-3 and C-7, and certain information contained in Exhibits B-3 and C-4. Accordingly, within seven business days after the date of this entry, Stand should file Exhibits B-3 and C-4 as public documents, redacted as provided above.

(9) In its November 6, 2006, filing, Stand also requested a waiver of Rule 4901-1-24(F), O.A.C., which currently provides that, "[u]nless otherwise ordered, any order prohibiting public disclosure pursuant to paragraph (D) of this rule shall automatically expire eighteen months after the date of its issuance, and such information may then be included in the public record of the proceeding. A party wishing to extend a protective order beyond eighteen months shall file an appropriate motion at least forty-five days in advance of the expiration date of the existing order." Stand maintains that the information will continue to be confidential beyond the 18-month period set forth in the rule, and that the filing for additional months every 18 months is burdensome.

- (10) By Finding and Order issued on December 6, 2006, in In the Matter of the Review of Chapters 4901-1, 4901-3, and 4901-9 of the Ohio Administrative Code, Case No. 06-685-AU-ORD, the Commission modified Rule 4901-1-24(D)(4), O.A.C., stating that information included in gas marketers' renewal certification applications that is determined to be a trade secret shall be protected for 24 months instead of 18 months. While this new rule is not yet in effect, the attorney examiner finds it appropriate to grant Stand's motion for extension of the 18-month period and protect the information for the 24-month period consist with the Commission's recent order.
- (11) Accordingly, the docketing division should maintain under seal Exhibits C-3 and C-7 and the unredacted versions of Exhibits B-3 and C-4, as filed on November 6, 2006, for a period of 24 months from the date of this entry.

It is, therefore,

ORDERED, That Stand's motion for a protective order be granted in part and denied in part such that Exhibits C-3 and C-7 are granted protective status and portions of Exhibits B-3 and C-4 are granted protective status as set forth in Finding (8). It is, further,

ORDERED, That Stand file the redacted versions of Exhibits B-3 and C-4 as public documents within seven business days from this entry. It is, further,

ORDERED, That Stand's motion for a waiver of Rule 4901-1-24(F), O.A.C., be granted and that Exhibits C-3 and C-7, and the unredacted versions of Exhibits B-3 and C-4 shall be maintained under seal for a period of 24 months from the date of this entry. It is, further,

ORDERED, That a copy of this entry be served upon each party of record.

THE PUBLIC UTILITIES COMMISSION OF OHIO

By:

Christine M.T. Pirik Attorney Examiner

N/hw

Entered in the Journal

JAN 0 8 2007

Reneé J. Jenkins

Secretary