Necessity.)

ENTRY

The attorney examiner finds:

- (1) Buzz Telecom, Corporation (Buzz Telecom) is certified to provided competitive telecommunications services in the state of Ohio pursuant to Certificate of Public Convenience and Necessity No. 90-6096
- (2) On January 10, 2006, Buzz Telecom filed an application to abandon its Certificate of Public Convenience and Necessity. The company states that it stopped accepting new customers in Ohio in September 2006, ceased providing service to customers in Ohio in December 2006, and no longer has any customers in Ohio.
- (3) On December 11, 2006, the Commission staff (staff), through its counsel, filed a motion in Case No. 06-1443-TP-UNC (06-1443), In the Matter of the Commission Staff's Investigation into the Alleged Violations of the Minimum Telephone Service Standards by Buzz Telecom Corp., by which it requested that the Commission open an investigation into the business practices of Buzz Telecom. Staff filed a report of investigation concurrent with its motion.
- (4) On December 13, 2006, the Commission opened an investigation into Buzz Telecom's alleged violations of the Minimum Telephone Service Standards found in Chapter 4901:1-5, Ohio Administrative Code. Pursuant to the Commission's Entry of December 13, 2006, Buzz Telecom was ordered to respond to each of the allegations set forth in the Commission staff report.
- (5) In light of the ongoing investigation of Buzz Telecom in 06-1443, and considering the fact that Buzz failed to properly respond to the Commission's Entry of December 13, 2006, the attorney
