ENTRY

The Commission finds:

- (1) The aforementioned cases were opened on January 30, 2004.
- (2) A response to the complaints was filed by facsimile on February 20, 2004.
- (3) Commission records indicate no activity in these dockets since February 20, 2004.
- (4) In view of the fact that these cases have been inactive for several years, an attorney examiner's entry was issued on December 21, 2006, instructing the complainants or complainants' representative to contact the Commission's Legal Department by January 8, 2007, and discuss with the Chief of the Telecommunications Section the best method to move forward with the prosecution of these matters. The December 21, 2006 entry further noted that should the complainants or complainants' representative fail to contact the Commission and to move forward with the prosecution of these matters, the attorney examiner would recommend to the Commission that these cases be dismissed and closed of record for lack of prosecution.

- (5) Neither complainants nor complainants' representative contacted the Legal Department in response to the December 21, 2006 entry. Accordingly, these cases will be dismissed and closed of record without prejudice at this time for lack of prosecution.

It is, therefore,

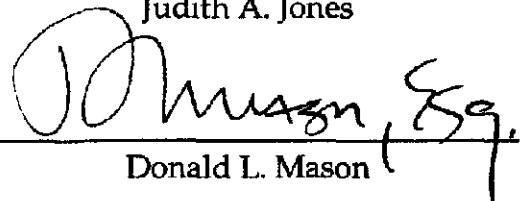

ORDERED, That these complaint cases are dismissed without prejudice for lack of prosecution in accordance with finding 5. It is, further,

ORDERED, That a copy of this entry be served upon all parties of record.
