ENTRY

The Commission finds:

- (1) On February 28, 2006, Donald Wilson filed a complaint against MCI alleging that he received numerous computer-generated calls from MCI, encouraging him to switch from his current provider, Sprint, to MCI local and long distance services. On March 20, 2006, an answer was filed by MCImetro Access Transmission Services LLC d/b/a Verizon Access Transmission Services (Respondent or Verizon Access Transmission Services).
- (2) A prehearing settlement conference was conducted on May 17, 2006, in accordance with an attorney examiner entry issued May 4, 2006. At the settlement conference, the parties agreed to exchange additional information. On June 5, 2006, Respondent provided additional information to Mr. Wilson, via the attorney examiner, as requested by Mr. Wilson. In the June 5, 2006 letter to Mr. Wilson, Verizon Access Transmission Services stated that it was providing the remainder of the information requested at the settlement conference and requested that Mr. Wilson dismiss this complaint.
- (3) The attorney examiner contacted Mr. Wilson later in June 2006, to determine whether he wished to dismiss his complaint. During the telephone call, Mr. Wilson requested additional time to consider whether he wished to proceed to hearing in this case. On August 15, 2006, Mr. Wilson contacted the attorney examiner to request the return of the evidence that he provided for use in this case. During that conversation,

Technician Date Processed 1-17-07

Mr. Wilson agreed to send a letter to the Commission concerning whether he wished to close this complaint case.

- (4) On January 8, 2007, Mr. Wilson contacted the attorney examiner, in response to the attorney examiner entry issued December 29, 2006. During the January 8, 2007 telephone conversation, Mr. Wilson stated that he does not wish to proceed to hearing and requested that his complaint case be closed. The Commission finds that Mr. Wilson's verbal request to dismiss his case should be granted. Accordingly, this complaint should be dismissed and closed of record.

It is, therefore,

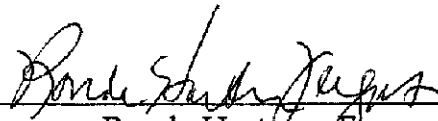

ORDERED, That Case No. 06-361-TP-CSS be dismissed and closed of record. It is, further,

ORDERED, That a copy of this Entry be served upon each party of record.
