REGULATORY COUNCIL

I'm writing in regard to DOCKET # PF06-30-000. I don't know what I can possibly say that hasn't been said in regard to REX PIPELINE.

My personal experience has been a TOTAL NIGHTMARE. I am one of the land owner's that filed charges for trespassing on my land. I filed last summer, and as of today, I personally have not heard one word in regard to this. I heard through another property owner that the charges had been dropped. I couldn't believe this!

I have an 80 acre farm just North of Peppertown in Franklin County on Hwy 229. I purchased this property 14 years ago, and have worked very hard to pay for it. The property is in Batesville school district, which is 4 Star rated! If the proposed pipeline stays on the same course, it will divide my farm down the middle...16 acres to the South, and 64 acres to the North. I have an ideal property for development, which we have laid out 16 plats, contacted Hoosier Hills Water, the list goes on and on. THIS WILL AFFECT ME GREATLY IN THE ABILITY TO DEVELOP OR SELL IT!

I can't find words to describe the horror of having it on my farm! We have a foundation that is just sitting there for a new home! This has put a halt to our lives.

I think it is a very sad day in AMERICA when a private entity can be given the power of eminent domain to take the rights to an individual's property for the sole purpose of making a profit for that company, and FERC FEELS THIS IS IN THE BEST NATIONAL INTEREST OF THIS COUNTRY! I KNOW AND FEEL THAT THIS IS AGAINST ONE OF THE MOST SACRED RIGHTS BESTOWED ON US BY THE CONSTITUTION, THE RIGHT TO OWN PRIVATE PROPERTY.

Can you explain the connection to Farm Bureau, and why a non-governmental agency is handling mitigation procedures in Indiana when Illinois and Ohio are represented by official government bodies???????

As I stated above, my experience with Rex Pipeline was a NIGHTMARE, and to think they can COME AND GO at will on my farm if given eminent domain....

Put yourselves in our place, and ask how you would feel if it were your property???

Thank you for your time and consideration.
