Re: Fairfield Medical Center v. Ohio Power Company
Case No. 07-671-EL-CSS

Dear Ms. Jenkins:

On June 4, 2007, Fairfield Medical Center ("Fairfield Medical") filed a Complaint and Motion for Immediate Order Directing Ohio Power Company to Cease and Desist its Threatened Termination of Fairfield Medical Center's Electric Facilities.

Fairfield Medical now seeks to withdraw its Motion for Immediate Order as Fairfield Medical and Ohio Power Company have reached an accommodation with respect to Ohio Power Company's immediate need to disable the automatic switch serving Fairfield Medical's secondary service line during the pendency of this complaint.

The parties have agreed that by reaching this accommodation concerning Fairfield Medical's request for immediate relief, neither party is waiving any of their arguments that may be brought concerning Fairfield Medical's underlying Complaint.

If you have any questions concerning this matter please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely yours,

Thomas J. O'Brien
