EXHIBIT C

AT&T Communications of Ohio, Inc. (AT&T) is filing this application to grandfather Remote Call Forwarding effective June 15, 2007. The following customer notice was sent via direct mail to customers May 15, 2007.

May 15, 2007

Re: Remote Call Forwarding Feature

Dear Valued Customer,

Our records reflect that your business is currently enrolled in an AT&T local service plan which includes the local feature option Remote Call Forwarding (RCF). This is to advise that effective June 15, 2007, AT&T will cease to accept new orders for RCF in all states and in connection with all local calling plans.

However, as a current subscriber to RCF, you will be able to retain this feature so long as you remain at your existing location and on your existing local calling plan. Please note that effective June 15, 2007, RCF will not be available if you change service locations and/or telephone numbers, or in connection with the establishment of new service.

You may elect to disconnect the RCF local feature option on your existing local calling plan at any time by calling AT&T at 877-325-0445.

If you have any questions or if there is anything we can assist you with, please call us at the telephone number listed above.

Thank you for choosing AT&T.

Sincerely,

AT&T Small Business
