24. AT&T Personal Network Rewards Plan - Customers of Consumer Telecommunications Services, enrolled in AT&T Personal Network Plan, Section 4.2.23. will automatically be enrolled in this offer.

Specifically, Customers will earn 1 minute for every two dollars of eligible charges for twelve consecutive billing cycles. Minutes accumulate monthly and are awarded starting in the Customer's thirteenth billing cycle. In the thirteenth billing cycle, as Customers are awarded their minutes, they will start to earn minutes again on eligible charges for the next twelve consecutive billing cycles to be redeemed starting at the end of that twelfth billing cycle.

After twelve consecutive billing cycles, AT&T will automatically award Customers the minutes they earned. AT&T will calculate a Customer's minutes to be awarded by adding the total eligible minutes earned during the previous 12 consecutive billing periods divided by 12. One Minute earned is worth $.10. The monthly minutes will be automatically credit to the Customer's bill each month for twelve consecutive billing cycles. Any minutes not used in the billing month in which it was credited will not be carried over to subsequent billing months and will be forfeited by the Customer.

Eligible charges is defined as all Personal Network monthly recurring charges, usage charges and service charges as set for the in Section 4.2.3. appearing on the Customer's monthly bill. Eligible charges also include those charges for other AT&T qualifying services that appear on the Customer's AT&T Personal Network combined monthly bill. Eligible charges include intrastate usage unless an identical Personal Network Rewards Plan is effective under an AT&T intrastate tariffs. Where no intrastate tariff applies, intrastate charges will be used to calculate and award Rewards provided as part of interstate service. Eligible charges are net charges after the application of all applicable credits and discounts. Taxes, surcharges, Universal Connectivity Charge, Carrier Line Charge, and equipment charges are excluded. Eligible monthly charges will be rounded up to the next whole dollar when the monthly charge includes a fractional dollar of $.50 or more, and will be rounded down to the next whole dollar when the monthly charge includes a fractional dollar of $.49 or less.

Customers who enroll in this plan by January 31, 1999, will earn 100 additional minutes the month they enroll in this plan.

If at any time during this plan, the Customer selects a carrier other than AT&T as their primary interexchange carrier and/or no longer participates in the AT&T Personal Network Plan, the Customer will: 1) forfeit any earned minutes not yet received, and 2) terminate their participation in this plan.
