ENTRY

The Commission finds:

- (1) On February 1, 2007, Louis A. Green & Associates (Green & Associates or complainant) filed a complaint against AT&T Ohio (AT&T). Green & Associates is a professional engineering, surveying, and land planning business. In the complaint, Green & Associates alleged claims relating to payment due dates and high speed Internet service.
- (2) AT&T filed an answer to the complaint on February 22, 2007. In its Answer, AT&T alleged that high speed Internet service is an interstate service subject to the exclusive jurisdiction of the Federal Communications Commission (FCC).
- (3) By entry issued April 4, 2007, the Commission determined that the FCC maintains exclusive jurisdiction over the regulation of high speed Internet service. Accordingly, the Commission dismissed the claims relating to high speed Internet service.
- (4) The Commission, however, acknowledged that it has jurisdiction over local and toll telephone service. The Commission, therefore, granted the complainant a 20-day period to file a statement clarifying whether there are any claims relating to local or toll service. To date, the complainant has not filed a clarifying statement. In accordance with the April 4, 2007, entry, the Commission shall assume that the complaint relates entirely to high speed Internet service and, therefore, shall dismiss the complaint in its entirety.
