 Within the Rate Schedules of The East Ohio) Case No. 02-219-GA-GCR Gas Company dba Dominion East Ohio and) Related Matters.)

ENTRY

The attorney examiner finds:

- (1) By entry of September 18, 2002, the Commission directed that a financial audit of East Ohio Gas Company dba Dominion East Ohio (Dominion) be conducted in this case.
- (2) On June 13, 2003, the Office of the Ohio Consumers' Counsel filed testimony in this proceeding, marking it as being filed under seal. However, no motion for a protective order was made and no entry granting such treatment was issued.
- (3) Rule 4901-1-24(F), Ohio Administrative Code, provides that:

Unless otherwise ordered, any order prohibiting public disclosure . . . shall automatically expire eighteen months after the date of its issuance, and such information may then be included in the public record of the proceeding. A party wishing to extend a protective order beyond eighteen months shall file an appropriate motion at least forty-five days in advance of the expiration date of the existing order. The motion shall include a detailed discussion of the need for continued protection from disclosure.

- (4) The information filed with a notation that it was filed under seal has been held in the confidential files of the Commission for more than four years, without any initial consideration as to whether confidential treatment was appropriate and without any reconsideration after 18 months regarding whether continued protection was appropriate. Therefore, the attorney examiner finds that, unless any party to this proceeding moves for continued confidential treatment within 30 days of this entry, the information filed in this docket on June 13, 2003, will be moved to the public record.

It is, therefore,

ORDERED, That if no motion for continued protective treatment is filed within 30 days of this entry, the information described in finding (4) will be moved to the public record. It is, further,

ORDERED, That a copy of this entry be served upon all parties of record.
