MOTION FOR LEAVE TO FILE COMMENTS OUT OF TIME
BY THE OFFICE OF THE OHIO CONSUMERS' COUNSEL

The Office of the Ohio Consumers' Counsel ("OCC"), an intervenor in Case 07-511 on behalf of residential consumers,¹ moves for leave to file comments out of time, pursuant to Ohio Adm. Code 4901-1-12 and Ohio Adm. Code 4901-1-13.² OCC has good cause for this motion because the Entry setting a comment period in this proceeding was not timely served on OCC and was never listed on the docket of this proceeding on the website of the Public Utilities Commission of Ohio ("Commission" or ¹ OCC's intervention in 07-511 was granted in the Finding and Order issued in this proceeding on May 2, 2007 (at 5). OCC has statutory authority to represent residential utility customers pursuant to R.C. Chapter 4911.

² Ohio Adm. Code 4901-1-13(B), among other things, requires that motions for an extension of time must be filed sufficiently in advance of the existing filing date to provide the Commission an opportunity to consider the request and for other parties to avoid being disadvantaged by the request. As described in the Memorandum in Support, however, the circumstances under which OCC seeks a brief extension to file comments prevented OCC from filing its motion before the existing filing deadline. As noted in the Memorandum in Support, OCC will attempt to avoid any disadvantage to Verizon North Inc. ("Verizon"), the only other party in this proceeding.

"PUCO"). As a result, OCC was not aware of the opportunity, per the Entry, to comment on the Staff Report in these proceedings until nearly 5:00 p.m. on February 1, 2008, the day the comments were due. The reasons why OCC's motion should be granted are more fully explained in the attached Memorandum in Support.

Case No. 07-511-TP-UNC

MEMORANDUM IN SUPPORT

On January 24, 2008, the PUCO Staff docketed a report of its investigation into Verizon's application for a limited exemption of reporting requirements in the Minimum Telephone Service Standards ("Staff Report"). The Staff Report, among other things, recommended that the Commission assess an additional forfeiture against Verizon for failing to comply with standards for adequate quality of service to customers that Verizon and the PUCO Staff agreed to in a Stipulation filed in 07-511 on April 30, 2007. Verizon filed a response to the Staff Report on January 28, 2008 and OCC filed comments to the Staff Report on January 29, 2008.

Also on January 29, an Entry was issued in these proceedings affording interested persons an opportunity to comment on the Staff Report. The Entry set a due date of February 1, 2008 for such comments.³ The Entry also "ORDERED, That a copy of this entry be served upon Verizon North Inc., its counsel and upon the Office of the Ohio Consumers' Counsel.”⁴

OCC, however, was unaware of the Entry until 4:50 p.m. on February 1, 2008, when OCC was electronically served with a copy of Verizon's Supplemental Comments that were filed at 4:35 p.m. OCC immediately called the Commission's docketing office and was told that the Entry had indeed been signed on January 29. Docketing then faxed the Entry to OCC at approximately 5:15 p.m.

Although the Entry was signed on January 29, the document was not available through the Commission's Docketing Information System (“DIS”) by February 1, 2008.⁵ As shown by the attached printout of the electronic docket for these proceedings (Exhibit 1), which was printed after 5:00 p.m. on February 1, there is no listing for the Entry. The Entry also does not appear on any of the Commission's daily activity reports for January 29 through 31, 2008, attached hereto as Exhibit 2. Thus, no electronic version of the Entry was posted on the Commission's website before the comment deadline to provide interested persons notice of the comment deadline. A service notice was docketed in these proceedings on January 29, 2008, but did not describe the document that caused the service notice to be docketed.

Although the Entry ordered that OCC was to be served with a copy of the Entry, that service was not properly completed. The service notice properly listed David Bergmann as counsel of record for 07-511. For no apparent reason, however, the service notice listed Jeffrey Small as a contact person for the OCC. Mr. Small, however, has never been listed on any document filed by OCC in these proceedings.

Mail service to OCC, however, was not accomplished until January 31, 2008 – two days after the Entry was signed and the day before the deadline for filing comments. The mailed copy of the Entry was not received in OCC's offices until the afternoon of February 1, 2008 – much too late for OCC to submit comments pursuant to the Entry.⁶ In fact, Mr. Bergmann did not receive a mailed copy of the Entry until February 4, 2008.

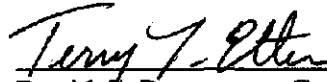

If OCC had been aware that the Entry was issued, OCC would have filed timely comments on February 1, 2008. The clerical errors discussed above should not prevent OCC from having that opportunity. And although Verizon used the opportunity for commenting on the Staff Report – as allowed in the Entry – as an occasion to reply to OCC's comments, OCC, out of fairness to Verizon, will only comment in detail on those documents that had been docketed in these proceedings as of January 31, 2008.

Ohio Adm. Code 4901-1-13(A) allows for extensions of time upon a showing of good cause. OCC has shown good cause for its motion to file out of time. OCC's motion should be granted.

⁶ Terry Etter, counsel of record in 00-1265, did receive telephone notice from the Attorney Examiner that an entry would be forthcoming on January 29. The Attorney Examiner at the time, however, was unaware that OCC had filed its comments earlier that day. (OCC's comments were prepared before OCC was aware of Verizon's filing the previous day.) Thus, when no entry appeared on the Commission's website, OCC assumed that no entry had been issued.
