

- (4) In place of the language in finding (14) of the May 28, 2008, entry, the following provisions will apply: The Commission-redacted documents will be filed publicly in these dockets on July 8, 2008, unless an application for rehearing is filed under Section 4903.10, Revised Code. Parties to these proceedings may contact the attorney examiners in order to receive an electronic copy (on a computer disk) of the documents, with highlighting to indicate the Commission's proposed redactions. The parties should understand that this copy of the information must be treated under the same confidentiality restrictions that apply to any previous copies or versions of the information that they have previously obtained, regardless of the medium in which, or the party from whom, such information was conveyed. Therefore, the disks, and the information thereon, are not to be copied or transmitted in any way to any other person or entity. As has been the case through the remand process with regard to those parties who have not entered into confidentiality agreements with Duke or its affiliates relating to this information, such information is also not to be shared by any counsel with his or her client or with any other person or entity.
- (5) The Commission's intention is that, if any party desires to file an application for rehearing with regard to the matters originally determined in the May 28, 2008, entry and re-adopted in the present entry, the deadline for filing such application for rehearing should be calculated on the basis of the present issuance date.

It is, therefore,

ORDERED, That all of the findings in the May 28, 2008, entry, other than finding 14, be re-adopted consistent with finding 3, herein. It is, further,

ORDERED, That the parties comply with the requirements of this entry. It is, further,

ORDERED, That a copy of this entry be served upon all parties of record in these proceedings.
