Re: Case No. 90-5032-TP-TRF

Dear Ms. Jenkins:

This filing corrects one minor typographical error on the tariff sheet filed in this case by AT&T Ohio earlier today, June 13, 2008. The word "an" was incorrectly printed. The correct word should be "on" and so, the sheet has been revised to display the correct word. Please replace the previously filed Part 2, Section 2, 3rd Revised Sheet 18 with the corrected sheet provided herein.

If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,

/s/ Maryann Mackey

2. PAYMENT FOR SERVICE (cont'd)

2.10 Late Payment Charges for Residence Services (cont'd)

2. Each customer account shall be permitted a one-time waiver of a monthly late payment charge upon request by the customer provided the customer has paid the monthly bill to which the late payment charge was to apply.
3. Credit, deposit and collection procedures outlined elsewhere in this tariff are not waived or foreclosed by the application of a late payment charge.

2.11 Convenience Fee for Payment Made with a Company Representative^{/1/}

A fee may apply for each instance of payment of charges made with a Company Representative, when authorized by the subscriber, for one-time electronic payments by check, credit card, or by any other discretionary method that may be accepted by the Company. The subscriber would be informed by the Company Representative of any applicable charges prior to processing the subscriber's payment and given the opportunity to be transferred to the automated payment system to avoid this charge.

This fee would not apply when automated payment systems are unavailable due to system outages. This fee would also not apply for payments taken directly by subscribers to authorized Company payment locations, payments mailed in, payments made using self service payment options, or automatic funds transfer.

Customers who are physically unable to use other payment alternatives, including the automated system, and who inform the Company Representative of such limitations on each call, would not be subject to the fee. The Company reserves the right to require medical certification.
