INDUSTRIAL ENERGY USERS-OHIO'S MEMORANDUM CONTRA THE APPLICATION FOR REHEARING OF THE OFFICE OF THE OHIO CONSUMERS' COUNSEL

I. INTRODUCTION

On May 28, 2008, the Public Utilities Commission of Ohio ("Commission") issued an Entry attempting to settle a dispute between the parties to these cases regarding the redaction of confidential documents filed in these proceedings.<sup>1</sup> In addition to resolving the dispute, the Commission also noted its staff had compiled a version of the redactions that was consistent with the Commission's resolution of the dispute. The Commission explained that its version of the redactions would be provided in an electronic format and announced that its version of the redactions would be released into the public domain unless an application for rehearing was filed.<sup>2</sup> Specific instructions for how to identify documents and information in the applications for rehearing were also provided. A technology-related delay in providing the Commission's version of the redacted confidential documents led the Commission to release a subsequent Entry readopting the findings in its May 28, 2008 Entry while also amending the date on which it would publicly release the documents.<sup>3</sup>

On July 7, 2008, Applications for Rehearing were filed by Industrial Energy Users-Ohio ("IEU-Ohio") and the Ohio Consumers' Counsel ("OCC"). Additionally, a Joint Application for Rehearing was filed by Duke Energy Ohio ("DE-Ohio"), Duke Energy Retail Sales ("DERS"), and Cinergy Corp. IEU-Ohio hereby files it Memorandum Contra OCC's Application for Rehearing.

II. ARGUMENT

In its Application for Rehearing, OCC asks the Commission not to redact certain information contained within a chart on Bate Stamp page 215 that describes contracts between DERS (formerly called Cinergy Retail Sales, LLC) and customers.<sup>4</sup> OCC claims "The first set of agreements involve multiple entities, and no customer is named."<sup>5</sup> OCC asserts this information has already been made public and therefore is undeserving of Commission protection.<sup>6</sup>

While IEU-Ohio believes OCC does not object to the redaction of the individual customer names contained within the chart, IEU-Ohio files this Memorandum Contra out of concern that OCC's description might be misinterpreted. IEU-Ohio interprets OCC's language to mean that only the customer identity description in the first row of the chart should not be protected. An interpretation of OCC's request in the manner suggested by IEU-Ohio would be consistent with the Commission's previous determinations that individual customer names are trade secrets and should be protected from public disclosure.<sup>7</sup>

III. CONCLUSION

For the reasons described above, IEU-Ohio urges the Commission to interpret OCC's assertions in the manner suggested by IEU-Ohio in order continue to protect customer names in all public versions of redacted confidential documents filed in this proceeding.

Respectfully submitted,
