COMMENT DESCRIPTION:

Sirs, Dominion has not proved its need to increase rates;the increase in monthly fixed rate proposed is outrageous. The additional $.47 per Mcf to make up for deadbeats is unAmerican;what other company charges its consumers for debts it can't collect? Conscientious consumers who layer clothing & lower thermostats in winter are being penalized. I have not been satisfied with your stance over the years & continue to have the impression that the utilities have this watchdog on a short leash.
