To whom it may concern
As for myself living on a fixed income (disability = SSI) and paying three utility bills, I oppose raising such Western energy rates 100%.

I desperately oppose. I'm barely above water the way it is now.

I hope in some way this small note helps, in some way. There isn't any way in which any company should deserve that kind of raise.

It seems as though Western is asking for whatever amount they can ^{get} in order to receive an amount they receive to look good on their behalf.
