Re: AEP rate increase

To whom it may concern:

This is a reply to a recent article in the Newark Advocate regarding the AEP rate increase.

At this time, I believe a rate increase is just an additional burden on people who are already in dire financial straits. Since I'm a retired senior, I'm upset because this is definitely a burden to our limited income already & losses many have suffered from this financial mess we're in.

To AEP I say "shame on you wanting customers to pay for the windstorm we had".

WHY IS NOT FEMA DOLLARS PAYING AEP FOR THAT?

In Disgust,
