COMPLAINT DESCRIPTION:

Stop Duke's IKE hike!!!!!!

Dear PUCO, (cc: Duke, AARP, willie@700wlw.com)

ENOUGH with the Duke rate hikes already!

Duke's INVESTORS should bear the cost of damages related to IKE. That's the cost of doing business and that's why Duke is a publicly traded company.

That's their responsibility "not ours.

It would be our responsibility if Duke were a cooperative â€œ but itâ€™s not â€œ so, tell them to issue more stock to cover their margins of loss due to IKE if they are experiencing a shortfall.

Also â€

Duke consumers already pay their share for line maintenance, operating expenses, and operation and maintenance of Dukeâ€™s transmission system in the form of MULTIPLE riders!

Need proof?

Well, you need to look no further than the definitions page on the PUCOâ€™s standard outline of current riders!!!!!!!!

Stop the IKE hike!

Worst case, we are reasonable people (although we canâ€™t say the same for Duke): ask us to bear a one-time surcharge (with a payment plan for low income consumers) to help Duke recover costs due to IKE.

But for the love of America â€œ which is already faltering â€œ donâ€™t agree to a permanent rate hike!

Thatâ€™s corporate greed to prop up shareholder profits â€œ not recovery of a prior expense as Duke claims!

Thank you, James
