Bewildered as to why I was pulled over to begin with, I removed my glasses and rubbed my eyes as the Ohio Highway Patrolman approached my truck. I neglected to put on my glasses while speaking with Patrolman. He then issued me a warning.

1.) passing on the left (which I was taught in driving school only pass on left, never right lane unless otherwise posted)

2.) not wearing glasses (assumed not wearing when driving) not wearing while talking to Patrolman

3.) unsecure load 40,000 lbs secured by 4 chains which I gladly add 2 chains.

I carry a current CSL license and adhere to the restrictions, proudly in the state of Ohio.
