C. Special Service Arrangement Charges

(S)(T)

- (1) If E911 Service requirements cannot be met with regularly offered service arrangements, special arrangements will be furnished when practical by the Company at charges equivalent to the costs of furnishing such arrangements. These special charges will be applicable to such items as engineering and special program development associated with billing and data base management.
- (2) Costs as referred to in this section may include but are not limited to:
 - a. Cost of maintenance.
 - b. Cost of operation.
 - c. Depreciation on the cost installed of any facilities used to provide the special service arrangement based on the anticipated useful service life of the facilities with an appropriate allowance for the net salvage.
 - d. General administration expenses, including taxes on the basis of average charges for these items.
 - e. Any other item of expenses associated with the particular special service arrangement.
 - f. An amount, computed on the cost installed of the facilities used to provide the special service arrangement, for return on investment.
- (3) Cost installed mentioned above includes cost of equipment and materials provided or used plus the cost of installing, including engineering, labor, supervision, transportation, right-of-way, and other items which are chargeable to the capital accounts.
- (4) Special service arrangement rates are subject to review and revision conditioned upon changing costs.

(S)

D. Program Development Charges

(T)

These are charges applicable to the work necessary to design, develop, test and maintain any special programming required to support E911 Service, its billing and its data base management. The rate is based on Company time and materials expended.

E. Records Conversion Charges

(T)

These are charges applicable to the work necessary to design, review, modify and maintain any Company customer records keeping systems in order to support E911 Service, its billing and data base management. The rate is based on Company time and materials expended.

F. Quotation Preparation

The customer may request a quotation for all costs associated with the provision of the facilities needed to satisfy the customer's service requirements. A quotation so provided does not bind the Company to the rates set forth in the quotation. All rates for services or facilities to be provided by the Company will be determined in accordance with the guidelines in this tariff.

G. Additional Charges from Other Companies

Any onetime charge for the provision of E911 Service passed on to the Telephone Company from another telephone company, interexchange carrier or other party will be in addition to the nonrecurring charges shown in this tariff for E911 Service.

H. Changes to Orders

When a customer requests changes for a pending order for the provision of Emergency Service, the changes will be undertaken if they can be accommodated by the Company personnel and will be billed to the customer at the appropriate hourly charges.

I. Additions, Moves or Changes

Appropriate Servicing Charges as set forth in Section 2 of this tariff apply for customer requests that necessitate additions, moves or changes of facilities on Telephone Company premises.
