Re: Rules For Alternative & Renewable Energy Emissions Control and Amendments to 4901:5-1, 4901:5-3, 4901:5-5 and 4901:5-7 OAC
Case No. 08-888-EL-ORD

Dear Ms. Jenkins:

On December 21, 2009, a letter was filed in the above captioned docket disclosing an ex parte meeting ("December 10 Ex Parte Meeting") between PUCO Commissioners and representatives of the Office of the Ohio Consumers' Counsel, the Ohio Environmental Council Environmental Law and Policy Center, Citizen Power, Government Edge, American Wind Energy Association, the Sierra Club and Iberdrola Renewables (collectively "Parties"). The December 21 letter does not give sufficient information to determine the nature of the ex parte communications made in the December 10 Ex Parte Meeting. In accordance with Ohio Administrative Code ("OAC") 4901-1-09, American Municipal Power, Inc. ("AMP") hereby requests further disclosure of the communications made during the December 10 Ex Parte Meeting.

AMP requests the Parties disclose any ex parte communication made in the December 10 Ex Parte Meeting about issues raised in the Application for Rehearing filed by the Ohio Consumer and Environmental Advocates ("OCEA") in the above captioned docket on November 13, 2009. Further, AMP requests that the Parties disclose whether the definition of Renewable Energy Credit in OAC 4901:1-40-01 (BB) was discussed in the December 10 Ex Parte Meeting.

Very truly yours,

Matthew S. White
Counsel for American Municipal Power, Inc.
