COMPLAINT DESCRIPTION:

We do not wish to contribute to Dominion East Ohio's PIPP program. There is no incentive for those folks to get off the "gravy train". WE should choose the objects of our charitable contributions. Dominion allows for neither to occur. We did not vote for President Obama, nor do we believe in his "redistribution of wealth". My husband and I worked for every cent we have and believe in giving ONLY to those in real need - and again, that should be of OUR CHOOSING. Where does it say that Dominion has the right to assess us for charity of Dominion's choosing?

Thank you.
