ATTACHMENT A

Description of Transaction

The parent company (Q-Comm Corporation, herein “Q-Comm”) of Kentucky Data Link, Inc. (“KDL”), Norlight Telecommunications, Inc., (“NTI”), Norlight, Inc. (“Norlight”) has entered into an agreement with Windstream Corporation (“Windstream”) to complete a transaction through which Windstream will acquire indirect control of KDL, NTI, and Norlight – the Ohio certificated subsidiaries of Q-Comm. The transaction is at the parent holding company level only, and the stock of the Ohio certificated entities will remain wholly owned by their existing parent company (Q-Comm), and the certificated entities themselves will not be directly affected by the transaction described herein.

KDL is authorized as a competitive provider of local exchange and/or interexchange services in 30 states throughout the country, including as a local exchange and interexchange carrier in Ohio. Likewise, NTI is authorized as a competitive provider of local exchange and/or interexchange services in 34 states, including as an interexchange carrier in Ohio. Finally, Norlight is authorized as a competitive provider of local exchange and/or interexchange services in 31 states, including as a local exchange and interexchange carrier in Ohio. Windstream has subsidiary local exchange carrier operations in 23 states and subsidiary operations authorized to provide interexchange services in 48 states. Windstream itself is not a regulated entity, and its existing operating subsidiaries are not involved in the instant transaction.

Pursuant to the terms of an Agreement and Plan of Merger (“Agreement”) dated August 17, 2010 among Windstream, Derby Merger Sub, Inc. (“MergerCo”) (a direct, wholly-owned subsidiary of Windstream created for purposes of the merger), Q-Comm, and the Stockholders’ Representative, MergerCo will merge with and into Q-Comm, with Q-Comm continuing as the surviving corporation (the “Transaction”). As a result of the Transaction, Q-Comm will become the direct, wholly-owned subsidiary of Windstream. Thus, Windstream will be the new ultimate parent company of KDL, NTI, and Norlight. This change in ultimate control does not involve a transfer of operating authority, assets or customers, and the Transaction is expected to be seamless to end user customers.¹ Immediately following consummation of the Transaction, KDL, NTI, and Norlight will continue to offer the same services, rates, terms and conditions pursuant to their existing authorization, and the only change resulting from the Transaction will be that these certificated entities will be ultimately owned by Windstream and may subsequently change their names to reflect “Windstream” in their names.

In order to consummate the Transaction later this year in 2010, the parties request that the Commission grant all relief sought herein as expeditiously as possible, and at the latest by November 1, 2010, so that the Parties can close the Transaction as soon as practicable in order for them to meet critical business objectives.

KDL and Norlight are Kentucky corporations, and NTI is a Wisconsin corporation. KDL, NTI and Norlight are wholly owned direct subsidiaries of Q-Comm, a privately-held Nevada corporation. Q-Comm, KDL, NTI, and Norlight operate an executive office at 8829 Bond Street, Overland Park, Kansas 66214 and an operations office at 3701 Communications Way, Evansville, Indiana 47715. Copies of the Certificates of Good Standing from the Secretary of State for KDL, NTI and Norlight are provided as Attachment B.

Collectively, Q-Comm’s operating subsidiaries are authorized to provide local exchange and/or interexchange telecommunications services in the District of Columbia and 41 states, including Ohio. In Ohio, KDL, NTI, and Norlight are authorized to provide competitive local exchange and/or interexchange services.² These entities also hold licenses with the Federal Communications Commission to provide domestic interstate and/or international telecommunications services.³

The current customers of KDL, NTI, and Norlight will remain customers of those entities. Accordingly, the Transaction will be virtually seamless to customers, who will continue to enjoy the same rates, terms and conditions of service as they do prior to closing.⁴ The only change resulting immediately from the Transaction will be that KDL, NTI, and Norlight will be ultimately owned by Windstream, a widely-held public corporation technically and financially well-qualified to become the new ultimate owner of KDL, NTI, and Norlight.

Diagrams showing the Transaction and the corporate structure of the Parties' pre- and post-Transaction are appended hereto as Attachment C.

The Transaction will clearly serve the public interest. The telecommunications industry has been and continues to be subject to rapid technological advances, evolving consumer preferences and dynamic changes. Combining KDL, NTI, and Norlight with Windstream will enable Windstream's subsidiaries to offer, and the existing Q-Comm certificated entities to continue to offer, a broad range of high quality services to customers. Windstream will help ensure the continuation of the certificated entities' ability to deploy and maintain innovative and advanced telecommunications offerings, benefiting Ohio consumers and serving the public interest, convenience and necessity. The Transaction will enable the customers of KDL, NTI, and Norlight to benefit from innovative products offered by the Parties, and the combined enterprise will be able to achieve greater economies of scale and scope than the Q-Comm subsidiaries would have had operating independently.

³ The Parties are also filing the appropriate applications with the Federal Communications Commission for approval of the Transaction.

Finally, the Transaction will be generally transparent to customers and, at the time of the merger, they will not experience any change in their services, rates, terms and conditions of such service as a result of the Transaction. Any future changes in rates, terms and conditions of service will be made in accordance with applicable Commission requirements, and any future consolidation of the operations into or with other Windstream processes, such that customers would see a change in their service, would be undertaken pursuant to applicable rules and notice requirements.⁵

⁵ The contemplated transfer of control does not raise any slamming concerns or necessitate compliance with FCC or state procedures to notify customers prior to a carrier-to-carrier sale or transfer of subscribers as the contemplated transaction does not involve any change in a customer's existing service provider. The customers of KDL, NTI and Norlight will remain with their company and will continue to be served under its existing authorization.
