RE: In the Matter of the Application of Frontier North Inc. to Add a New Service to its Tariff; PUCO
Case No. 10-1419-TP-ATA

Dear Ms. Jenkins:

Attached are an original and ten copies of a revised tariff sheet to be filed in connection with the above-referenced matter on behalf of Frontier North Inc. ("Frontier"). Please replace the new tariff sheet originally filed on September 23, 2010 in this matter with the revised sheet attached hereto. The TRF Number for Frontier is 90-5023-TP-TRF.

Thank you for your assistance. If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to call.

Sincerely,

SECTION 1
6th Revised Sheet No. 5
Cancelling 5th Revised Sheet No. 5

GENERAL REGULATIONS

2. OBLIGATION AND LIABILITY OF THE TELEPHONE COMPANY

2.09. PROVISION OF FACILITIES – Continued

2.09.11. Data Speed Limitation

While Basic Exchange Telephone Service (i.e. Switched Local Exchange Access Line Service) as delineated in P.U.C.O. No. 6 may be used by the customer for dial-up Internet access, the Company makes no guarantee as to the maximum obtainable data transmission speed beyond the Commission-specified minimum standard. Therefore, the vendor advertised speeds of modems owned or operated by the customer may not be attainable with this service. Basic Exchange Telephone Service is engineered to perform at speeds no lower than the mandatory minimum speed specified by the Public Utilities Commission of Ohio, in the Local Service Guidelines, Section XIII.A., as modified February 20, 1997.

2.09.12. Special Construction, Facilities and Arrangements

When an applicant, requires a special type of construction, or a type of facilities not normally provided, or where conditions imposed by the applicant, such as to time and place involved, make the installation abnormally or excessively expensive, the applicant or customer shall be required to pay the actual or estimated additional expense incurred by the Telephone Company, determined as follows: The difference between the expense incurred by the Telephone Company for such construction, facilities or installations and the expense which would otherwise be incurred for a normal type of construction or facilities or a normal installation.

2.10. FACILITY REARRANGEMENTS

When an applicant or other third-party requests a change in the type, location or the relocation underground of communications facilities, the requestor shall be required to pay the cost incurred by the Telephone Company for such change or relocation of facilities. Payment for the cost of the change or relocation must be made prior to the change or relocation.
