Re: PUCO Case No. 10-291-GA-CSS

Dear Ms. Brooke,

Pursuant to Rule 4901-1-16, Interrogatories and Response Time, of Ohio Administrative Code and regards to evidence Letter, dated Nov 26, 2007 submitted with complaint, the following questions are directed to each employee, Mr. James Cole, Mr. Daniel Creekmur, Ms. Suzanne Surface, Mr. Steve Jablonski, Mr. Dave Rau, and Ms. Karen Arms, with responsibility for this letter for response.

1. You have been identified as a person that assisted in drafting the Nov. 26, 2007 customer letter. Were you were responsible for drafting and final approval for sending the Nov. 26, 2007 letter to customers? If you were, what was your role?
2. If you approved the letter for distribution to customers, regarding costs, did you consider hearing statements in your approval process given in hearings up to Nov. 26, 2007 (the date of the letter) and published on the PUCO's web site?
3. Please forward any written documents of approval for each approver to the complainant, which verify final approval of the letter to customers.

Pursuant to Rule 4901-1-16, Interrogatories and Response Time, of the Ohio Administrative Code the following questions are directed for response from employee Mr. Doug Handy identified as an employee responsible for performing work under the Management of Columbia Gas at 3590

Technician Sam Date Processed NOV 02 2010

Turnberry Dr. Medina, Ohio on Feb 25, 2009 and employee Mr. Thomas DeCraene Supervisor for Infrasource Underground Services, Third Party repair service for Columbia Gas.

1. As of Feb. 25, 2009 did you believe that customer of Columbia Gas, Mr. Ronald J. Tanski, was not responsible for paying for replacement of the Gas Riser at Mr. Ronald J. Tanski's home located at 3590 Turnberry Dr.; Medina, Ohio, 44256? If so, from what source did you obtain this belief?

The request for interrogatory from Mr. Doug Dandy and Mr. Thomas DeCraene is requested through Columbia Gas of Ohio due to it's responsibility directed by the Commission order for the repair and replacement activities of natural gas service lines. Therefore, Columbia Gas of Ohio has the ultimate responsibility for managing the activities of employees as if they are direct employees of Columbia Gas of Ohio. Further, in several proposed filings Columbia Gas asserts that it will " assume responsibility for the future maintenance, repair and replacement of all service lines."

This statement certainly asserts that Columbia Gas will be responsible for activities of employees performing work for Columbia Gas.

Respectfully,

Ronald J. Tanski
Complainant
