Docketing Case No: 10-0176-EL-ATA

Notes: Why did it take your organization 5 months to make a decision on the OCC's request to allow it to investigate First Energy's marketing practices, and interview it's employees, past and present, with regards to the all-electric home promised life-of-home discounts, considering it took you less than 4 hours to rule on First Energy's current motion? I smell a rat in the "wood-pile"!! Your organization is supposed to be working for the consumer, and, so far, all you've done is delay our requests for what we were promised. We don't want any more delays!!! Do your job, and listen to what hundreds of us are telling you at public hearings. The OCC asked you 5 months ago to rule on their request for the very same info. What in the world does it take to get you people to understand that "John Q Public" has spoken? Wake up, folks, and pay attention to us. We are not going away!!

Sincerely,
Diana J. Martony
