Memorandum Contra to Office of the Ohio Consumers' Counsel Motion for a Comment Period

Pursuant to 4901-1-12 Ohio Administrative Code ("O.A.C."), Ohio Edison Company, The Cleveland Electric Illuminating Company ("CEI") and The Toledo Edison Company (collectively, "the Companies") submit their Memorandum Contra Office of the Ohio Consumers' Counsel ("OCC") Motion for a Comment Period in this proceeding. In support of its request, OCC claims that "[a] comment period is needed to provide interested parties an opportunity to present issues relevant to [the Companies'] request."¹ OCC provides no hint as to what issues it intends to present, nor does it offer a procedural rule or statute that would allow for such comments. The reason is simple. There is no such provision. Neither R.C. 4928.66(A)(2)(b) nor Rule 4901:1-39-05(T) provides for a comment period. Indeed, R.C. 4928.66(A)(2)(b) allows the Commission to amend an Electric Distribution Utility's ["EDU"] statutory energy efficiency and/or peak demand reduction benchmarks "if, after application by the [EDU], the commission determines that the amendment is necessary because the utility cannot reasonably achieve the benchmarks due to regulatory, economic, or technological reasons beyond its reasonable control."

It is unclear as to the purpose the comments submitted by OCC would serve. There are no material issues of fact that must be resolved. And even if there were, comments are not evidence upon which the Commission could base its ruling. The issue presented is a question of law, which the Commission is well within its discretion to determine without the benefit of OCC's insight. Further, if OCC believes that the Commission erred in its finding of law, it has recourse through an application for rehearing. And finally, the Companies are required to submit their annual report by March 15, 2011, including a statement as to whether they have met their 2010 benchmarks. If the Commission were to provide a comment period, the resolution of this matter would be unduly delayed to the prejudice of the Companies.

Therefore, based upon the foregoing, the Companies respectfully request that the Commission deny OCC's Motion for a Comment Period and approve the Companies' Application for an amendment to their benchmarks consistent with their Application.

Respectfully submitted,

Carrie Dunn
