ENTRY

The Commission finds:

- (1) On April 29, 2011, Nationwide Biweekly Administration, Inc. (Nationwide or complainant), filed a complaint against Velocity The Greatest Phone Company Ever, Inc. (Velocity) alleging, inter alia, that Velocity has engaged in an unfair or deceptive act or practice by not providing a clear and not misleading explanation of the increased charges on Nationwide's bill. Additionally, Nationwide asserted that Velocity had threatened to disconnect service to it if certain invoices were not paid.
- (2) On May 17, 2011, Nationwide filed a document stating that the case could be dismissed with prejudice as the parties had reached a settlement of the matters involved in the complaint.
- (3) Based on complainants' assertion that this matter has been settled, the Commission will dismiss this case of record with prejudice.

It is, therefore,

ORDERED, That this matter be dismissed with prejudice. It is, further,

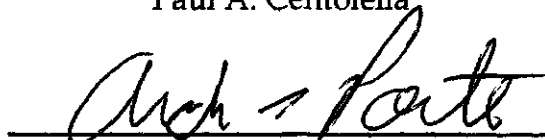

ORDERED, That a copy of this entry be served upon all parties of record.
