Re: Case No: 11-3002 EL-MER

To Whom It May Concern:

This letter is to inform you that my husband and I have owned stock in DPL since 1978. This became our funds for retirement. My husband, William Hudson, has become seriously ill and we have been forced to receive the monies accumulated out of our reinvestment program instead of having the option of reinvesting. We are against AES buying DPL for one reason being they are not paying enough for the company and another they will stop our dividend payments. We need those payments as our income now. We stayed with DPL through the bad and the good, we feel we have been faithful stockholders. Now, we are unable to work and therefore unable to produce a income for our household. We depend on DPL dividend checks. DPL is forcing us to sell our stock which will ruin us by the time taxes are taken out. In closing, we are seriously against AES buying DPL.

Seriously concerned about our future,

William D. Hudson
