Re: Case No. 11-346-EL-SSO, et al.
Confidential Information

Dear Ms. McCauley:

Yesterday, pursuant to a motion for protective order, Exelon Generation Company, LLC filed three copies of the testimony of Joseph Dominguez under seal and 20 copies of a redacted public version. The testimony had one attachment which was redacted in the public version, but should have been attached to the three confidential copies. It has come to our attention that the attachment was inadvertently also removed from the confidential copies of the testimony. Fortunately, when the confidential testimony was served yesterday on all parties of record who had signed the confidentiality agreement, the service copies did have the confidential attachment.

Enclosed please find three replacement copies of Mr. Dominguez's confidential testimony which include the confidential attachment.

Sincerely,

M. Howard Petricoff
