ENTRY

The attorney examiner finds:

- (1) On January 24, 2011, in Case No. 11-411-EL-ACP (11-411), Ohio Edison Company, The Cleveland Electric Illuminating Company, and The Toledo Edison Company (collectively, FirstEnergy or the Companies) filed an application requesting that the Commission make a force majeure determination regarding the Companies' compliance with the solar energy resources (SER) benchmark for 2010.
- (2) On April 11, 2011, in 11-411, FirstEnergy filed a notice of withdrawal of its January 24, 2011, force majeure application on the basis that it had procured additional solar renewable energy credits (SRECs) originating in Ohio.
- (3) Thereafter, on April 15, 2011, in the above-captioned case, FirstEnergy refiled its force majeure application to reflect the additional Ohio SRECs it had acquired. Additionally, FirstEnergy requested a force majeure determination as to its remaining shortfall, specifically, 1,577 SRECs of the 3,206 RECs required to meet its 2010 SER benchmark.
- (4) On June 6, 2011, Citizen Power, Inc. (Citizen Power), filed a motion to intervene as well as a motion for admission pro hac vice, requesting that Theodore S. Robinson be admitted to practice before the Commission in this proceeding. No party filed a memorandum contra to Citizen Power's motion for admission pro hac vice.
- (5) On August 3, 2011, the Commission granted FirstEnergy's application requesting a force majeure determination and, inter alia, granted the motion to intervene filed by Citizen Power.

- (6) The attorney examiner finds that Citizen Power's motion for admission pro hac vice of Theodore S. Robinson is reasonable and should be granted.

It is, therefore,

ORDERED, That the motion for admission pro hac vice of Theodore S. Robinson be granted. It is, further,

ORDERED, That a copy of this entry be served upon all parties of record.
