Caller states that her parents and in-laws are small business owners. States the AEP rate case will crush small businesses if it provides a 30% rate increase on small businesses while giving rate breaks to large business customers. Caller states small businesses are having a tough enough time and are shutting their doors now, a rate increase will crush them. Caller wants the Commissioners to know that even though she is not a small business owner she is against a rate increase for small businesses.
